AN

INDEX

TO THE PRINCIPAL MATTERS

IN THIS VOLUME.

[For Digest of the Reports, see p. 417.]

ADMISSIONS—Supreme Court, 112, 128.

ANECDOTES—

Popish superstition, 3.
Advantages of public occupation, 16.
Four by honors and all the tricks, 32.
Plain speaking from a prisoner, 64.
Lawyers fees, ib.
Reprimanding criminals, ib.
Hunt's reply to Sir Robert Peel, 80.
A martyr to science, ib.
Lord Kenyon and Sheridan, 96.
Brougham and Sugden, ib.
Feast of St. Vincent, ib.
Kindness rewarded, 110.
Sheridan's repartee, 112.
Serjeant Davy, 164.
Advice to a party who had been threatened to have his nose pulled, ib.
Being within the letter of the law, 169.
Special pleading, M. Montague and the Rev. —— Irving, 184.
Counsellor necessity, 208.
Very ridiculous, 213.
Case of presumption, 222.
Common sense, 240.
Bill accepted by blind man payable at sight, ib.
Horn Tooke in the house of commons, 257.
Pinch of snuff, 255.
Fox and Burke on the revolution, 264.
Brougham and the Duke of Cumberland, ib.
Hook and eye, ib.
Father O'Leary and Curran, 271.
Byron's opinion of good manners, 274.
Law and common sense, 304.
Arrest for stealing a horse, 311.
Juries, 320.
Repartee of judge in Tichle's case, 375.
Sugden's first introduction to the profession, 376.
Lord Mansfield and fashion, ib.
Absence of mind, 395.
Lord Eldon and the riots in London, 413.

APPOINTMENTS (LEGAL)—63.

ARTICLES—
On uses and trusts (see tit. "uses and trusts.")
On the law of carriers, 2.
On concealments on effecting life insurance, 21.
On law of joint-stock companies—Forfeiture of shares, 22.
Liabilities of directors, 49.
Making calls, 83, 149.
On estoppel by recitals, 34.
On law relating to clubs, 50.
On history of attorneys, 79.
On principal and agent, 97.
On omnipresence and omnipotence of law, 110.
On law and literature, 111.
On history and practice of injunctions, 113, 129, 147, 167, 203, 227.
On law of attorneys, sale of practice, 130.
Partnership, 141.
Lien on fund in court, 199.
Solicitor may be made co-defendant where a party to a fraud, 66.
On law of practice, constructive appearance, 145, 165.
On contingent interests and choses in action, how assignable, 163.
On punishment of death, 201.
On covenants to settle, 223.
On crimes by insane persons, opinions of the English judges with reference thereto, 241.
On equity, jurisdiction of courts, 265, 321.
On libels by magistrates, 266.
On presumption of survivorship, decisions of the ecclesiastical courts, 281.
On property of married women, 284.
On review of Judge Story's opinion, in re Tebbetts, bankrupt, 299, 305.
On inconsistencies of the law of libel and slander, 303.
On duties and needs of an advocate, ib.
On pleasantries of the law, the frying pan case, 336.
On absurdities, ib.
On purchase of reversionary interests, 377.
On specific performance—Building contract, 378.
On receivers distraining for rent, 401.
On equitable jurisdiction of courts of common law, 431.

BENCH AND BAR—Sketches of Judge Kent, 17.
William Wirt, 225.

CORRESPONDENTS—Notice to, 17, 113, 184, 280, 304, 360.

EPIGRAM, on four distinguished counsellors, 304.

FICTION, LEGAL.
The action of trover, 416.

HISTORICAL OUTLINES.
Richard I. to Ed. II., 182, 275.

Edward II. to Ed. III., 319.
Edward III., 357.
Richard II., 379.
Henry IV., 411, 417.

LEGAL LYRICS, 432.

MOOT POINTS—
Landlord and tenant, 264, 279.
Statute of limitations, 335, 356, 372.
Mistake in conveyance, 272.

NEW WORKS—Barbour and Harrington's, Equity Digest, 64.
Sugden on vendor, ib.
Archbold's Law of Nisi Prius, 156.

PRACTICAL POINTS—
Particulars—account stated—wages, 239.
Witness, 245.
Confidential communication, ib.
Negligence, ib.
Fire Insurance, 284.
Equity, discovery, and relief, 308.
Abatement of suit—defect of parties, &c., 323.
Must a deed be dated, 309.
Separate estate, married woman, 323.
Character of a servant, 324.
Abating a nuisance—pleading, 337.
Partnership, 361.
Gratuitous bailee, ib.
Lodging house, 362.
Marriage settlement, 376.
Criminal law.
Stealing potatoes, 16.
Double indictment, 320.
Larceny by servant, ib.
Life Insurance, 402.
Infants necessaries, 403.
Where tenant may quit during the term, 418.
Where tenant may dispute landlord's title, 419.

REMARKABLE TRIALS—
Uriarte's case—"the cross of murder," 18.
Jamieson's case—circumstantial evidence, 81.

REVIEW—Chitty on Bills by Barbour, 60.
Tayler on Wills, 263.
Blydenburgh on Usury, 431.

RULES AND ORDERS—
New rule common pleas, 112.
Thirtieth rule superior court abolished, 152.
Rule respecting July and August terms, common pleas, 200.

SITTINGS—Vice Chancellor Sandford, 156, 280.

TREATY—Between Great Britain and France as to the surrender of fugitives, 200.
Between Great Britain and America as to surrender of fugitives, 393.

USES AND TRUSTS—Resulting trusts, 1, 33.
Powers, 65.

, 418.
le, 419.

18.
ce, 81.
0.

, 152.
rms, com

156, 280.
France
as to ts, 1, 32.